EIGHTH LESSON: Luke 2:1-14 St. Luke tells of the birth of Jesus.

Pastor: And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This census first took place while Quirinius was governing Syria. So all went to be registered, everyone to his own city.

Men: Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child.

Women: So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Pastor: Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid.

Teens and younger: Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger."

All: And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"

Offering

Christmas Prayer

P: Lord Jesus, You left Your home in heaven to join us here on this broken earth. You left the warmth of Your Father's embrace to join us in the cold world. You fill us with awe. C: Lord Jesus, accept our offering of praise.

> Where Shepherds lately knelt and kept the angel's word, I come in half-belief, a pilgrim strangely stirred; But there is room and welcome there for me, But there is room and welcome there for me.

P: Lord Jesus, we are sinful from birth, but You were born pure and holy. Born of a virgin, You chose to rest in a bed of hay. We praise You for Your perfection, and we thank You for choosing to rescue us.

C: Lord Jesus, accept our offering of praise.

In that unlikely place I find Him as they said: Sweet newborn babe, how frail! And in a manger bed: A still, small voice to cry one day for me...

P: You came to die for us, to take our guilt, so we can find a home in heaven. Infant King, we confess our sin and rejoice that You have taken it from us. O Jesus, it is good that You have made a home for us in heaven with You.

C: Lord Jesus, accept our offering of praise.

How should I not have known Isaiah would be there, His prophecies fulfilled? With pounding heart I stare: A child, a son, the Prince of Peace for me...

P: So many don't know what You have done for us. They think their homes are here. Open our mouths to share the wonder of what You did on Christmas. Open our eyes to opportunities, and give us wisdom and courage to speak of Your grace.

C: Lord Jesus, accept our offering of praise.

Can I, will I forget how Love was born, and burned Its way into my heart—unasked, unforced, unearned, To die, to live, and not alone for me...

P: O Jesus, take these offerings of praise and use them to Your glory. Help us look forward to our heavenly home, as we pray the words You taught us: C: Our Father....

> NINTH LESSON: Matthew 2:1-11 The Wise Men are led by the star to Jesus.

Hymn 388: Go Tell It on the Mountain

TENTH LESSON: John 1:1-14 St. John unfolds the great mystery of the Incarnation.

Benediction:

P: The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. C: Amen.
